DAWN MEMEE LAVELL- HARVARD,
PhD

President of the Ontario Native
Women's Association

 Zonta Club of Kitchener-Waterloo
Member of Zonta International

Dr. Dawn Harvard, President of the Ontario Native Women's Association will speak on the historical struggles and continued challenges in advancing the status of Aboriginal women in Canada.

A member of the Wikwemikong First Nation, Dr. Harvard's PhD research focused on the experience of academically successful Aboriginal women in post-secondary education to identify not only the barriers faced, but also the coping strategies employed, in the hopes of encouraging increased academic achievement for future generations of Aboriginal students. Currently she is an adjunct faculty member at Queen's University and a full-time mother to three young girls. In her role as Ontario Native Women's Association President she serves on many Aboriginal-specific boards and initiatives both provincially and federally.
